

Bigger...isn't always better

We are committed to providing West Michigan with personal, high-quality service. In fact, market research shows that local independent uniform suppliers outperformed the national chains in all key service categories including responsiveness, quality of service personnel, service quality, fair billing and product quality.

