

Research showed that most companies and consumers (83%) felt that being able to identify a company's employees by having them in uniform was a critical factor in their decision to do business with that company. Uniforms work to:

- Make your customers more confident and secure
- Increase awareness of your company
- Enhance your company image and brand
- Extend your marketing power
- Build morale with your employees
- Potentially reduce your overall garment costs
- Eliminate the need for initial investment in uniforms
- Eliminate the headache of administering your own uniform program
- Create a hassle-free, easy program to keep your employees looking and feeling good

Your entire Uniform Program is professionally serviced by your Customer Service Representative, who is on-site every week, and your Account Representative, which handles all of your account needs. To ensure that you receive the highest level of service possible, an Internal Customer Service Specialist is also available to assist you with any service needs.
